What the Official Notice Said

Your Petition for U Nonimmigrant Status has been approved. Attached below please find a completed Form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record, indicating that you have been granted U nonimmigrant status for a period of 4 years.

EMPLOYMENT AUTHORIZATION:

You are authorized to work in the United States for the validity period of your U nonimmigrant status. Your Employment Authorization Document will be mailed to you separately.

ADJUSTMENT OF STATUS:

Federal law provides that you may be eligible to adjust your status to that of a lawful permanent resident. A U-1 nonimmigrant may submit an application for adjustment of status after he/she has been physically present in the United States for a continuous period of at least 3 years after the date he/she was admitted as a U-1 nonimmigrant.

DERIVATIVE U NONIMMIGRANT CLASSIFICATION:

You may request derivative U nonimmigrant status for qualifying family members. To request derivative status, you must submit a Form I-918 with Supplement A in accordance with the instructions printed on the form. If you included qualifying family members on your original application, a notice of decision on the derivative petition(s) will be mailed to you separately.

DEPARTING FROM THE UNITED STATES:

Aliens with U nonimmigrant status may travel outside the United States. However, in order to return to the United States, you must obtain a U nonimmigrant visa for re-entry to the United States unless you are visa exempt or obtain a waiver. Also, if you accrued "unlawful presence" prior to obtaining U nonimmigrant status, you may be unable to re-enter the United States and may need to obtain a waiver of inadmissibility prior to or upon your return to the United States.

Contact the Vermont Service Center if you would like to be provided a list of nongovernmental organizations that may be of assistance to you.

NOTICE: Although this application or petition has been approved, USCIS and the U.S. Department of Homeland Security reserve the right to verify this information before and/or after making a decision on your case so we can ensure that you have complied with applicable laws, rules, regulations, and other legal authorities. We may review public information and records, contact others by mail, the internet or phone, conduct site inspections of businesses and residences, or use other methods of verification. We will use the information obtained to determine whether you are eligible for the benefit you seek. If we find any derogatory information, we will follow the law in determining whether to provide you (and the legal representative listed on your Form G-28, if you submitted one) an opportunity to address that information before we make a formal decision on your case or start proceedings.

Please see the additional information on the back. You will be notified separately about any other cases you filed.

USCIS encourages you to sign up for a USCIS online account. To learn more about creating an account and the benefits, go to <https://www.uscis.gov/file-online>.
